COMMUNICATION

S I R:

Applicant notes that the Notice of Allowability in the present application indicates that various priority documents have not been received. Applicant submits that in a National Phase application it is the International Office that forwards the priority documents to the national office, not the applicant. Applicant is not required to independently submit the priority documents.

This transmission is being submitted concurrently herewith form PTOL-85 and the amount of $1810 is being charged by credit card.

Please charge any fees or charges required at this time in connection with this application to Patent and Trademark Office Deposit Account No. 02-2275.

Respectfully submitted,

LUCAS & MERCANTI, LLP
